Keynote Speeches and Panel Discussion

Monday, 18 January 2021 from 1.00 – 1.45 p.m. CET: “Pandemic, Regime Change and Beyond”

Christopher Potts
Head of Economics & Strategy Research, Kepler Cheuvreux

Christopher Potts has been the Head of Economics and Strategy Research for Cheuvreux since 1995. Potts and his team have built a strong reputation for their publications which cover macroeconomic themes, asset allocation – with emphasis on sectors and markets within Europe – and quantitative and technical analysis. Potts has worked as an economist and macro strategist over the past 25 years on currency, bond and equity markets, with a focus on the European region, having previously worked in the oil industry and as an economic consultant. He was educated at the University of Cambridge and the LSE in the UK and at the University of Bordeaux in France.

Tuesday, 19 January 2021 from 1.00 – 1.45 p.m. CET: Panel discussion on “Covid implications: Learnings and the funding of the recovery”

Moderator: Marcello Calabrò, Head of CIB Marketing – UniCredit

Dr. Günther Bräunig
CEO of KfW

Dr. Günther Bräunig, born in 1955, has been CEO of KfW since January 2018. Bräunig studied law and was awarded a German doctorate in law. He began his professional career in 1984 at Commerzbank in the Investment Banking Division. Bräunig then worked for Airbus as Sales Finance Director in Toulouse and Washington, D.C. In 1989, he joined KfW as Head of its International Capital Markets Division. Subsequently, Bräunig held various senior positions in the departments of Credit and Management Affairs. In 1996, he was promoted to Senior Vice President in charge of the Secretariat of Management Affairs. Four years later, in 2000, he was appointed Executive Vice President, and in 2006, Member of the Executive Board of KfW. In September 2017 Bräunig was named Deputy CEO of KfW. During the financial rescue of IKB AG by KfW in 2007/2008, Bräunig served as CEO of IKB AG.

Bräunig is also Chair of the Supervisory Board of Deutsche Pfandbriefbank AG and member of the Supervisory Boards of Deutsche Post AG and Deutsche Telekom AG.

He is married and has two adult children.
